[Council to Colo Ephraim Blaine]

Sir—The Rum which was in this City belonging to the Continent, M^r Ashmead informs us, was, some Time Since forwarded to Col^o Hollingsworth at the Head of the Bay and, as he believes, is in Philadelphia before this. The Charge for Storage, we have heard is extravagant but as the Rum is delivered, we have no Doubt you may reduce it to the Bounds of Moderation. We flatter ourselves with the Pleasure of seeing you here in a short Time and are in the Mean Time with great Respect
